CHRISTIAN OPHTHALMOLOGY SOCIETY

The Christian Ophthalmology Society was founded in 1977 as an interdenominational group of eye physicians and surgeons who confess that Jesus Christ is Savior and Lord. An annual meeting features a combination of excellent scientific papers, as well as spiritual presentations, as doctors seem to be able to relate more closely with others from similar backgrounds. Other goals of the Society include: (1) trying to develop unity in friendship among ophthalmologists in Christ; (2) to encourage medical students, house officers, and fellows in their walks with the Lord; (3) to support other physicians' faith in Christ, regardless of denominational background; (4) to have meetings with emphasis on the family so that all family members will feel at home and enjoy the surroundings; (5) to develop new professional acquaintances and get to know the families of colleagues who love the Lord; (6) to cooperate with, and pray for, missionary ophthalmologists; (7) to pray for revival, particularly in medicine. Special facilities are available for children, and Bible teaching and personal sharing meetings are designed for spouses so that the meetings will appeal to the entire family. Further information can be obtained by writing Sterling L. Cannon, MD, President, C.O.S., 2616 Warm Springs Road, Columbus, GA 31904.
